會議徵文

東海大學哲學系謹此邀請人文學門學者參與「中西哲學的返本與開新：以當代的挑戰為核心」(Returning to and Renewing Philosophical Traditions: Chinese and Western Philosophy in Response to Contemporary Challenges) 國際學術研討會並撰寫論文。

二十一世紀的今日，隨著 AI 時代的開啟，人類面臨了更多的挑戰，不管是技術的日新月異、當前動盪不安的多元社會，還是極端氣候下的環境反省，都使得哲學家不能只是沉浸在古老哲學智慧的愉悅中，更要面向挑戰，企盼能在新問題意識下，於復歸哲學傳統中探尋新的哲學途徑，我們希望透過「中西哲學返本與開新」的主題，讓哲學家的反思能充分得到交流與彼此取益。

Call for Papers

The Department of Philosophy at Tunghai University cordially invites scholars in the humanities to participate in the international conference “Returning to and Renewing Philosophical Traditions: Chinese and Western Philosophy in Response to Contemporary Challenges” (中西哲學的返本與開新：以當代的挑戰為核心) and to submit papers for presentation.

In the twenty-first century, as the age of AI unfolds, humanity faces an increasing number of unprecedented challenges. Whether it is the rapid advancement of technology, the instability of multicultural societies, or the ecological crises brought on by extreme climate change, philosophers can no longer remain content with the joys of ancient wisdom alone. Rather, they must confront these pressing challenges head-on, seeking new philosophical paths grounded in tradition yet responsive to emerging concerns.

Through the theme “Returning to and Renewing Philosophical Traditions: Chinese and Western Philosophy in Response to Contemporary Challenges,” this conference aims to facilitate dialogue and mutual enrichment among philosophers who reflect critically on these urgent issues.

We welcome submissions from scholars in Taiwan and abroad on the following suggested topics:

- The Challenge of AI and Philosophical Reflections
- Transformations of Subjectivity
- Citizenship and Social Practice
- Environment, Life, and Nature
- Other topics relevant to the conference theme

Details about the conference are as follows:

1. Dates: June 16 (Tuesday), 2026.
2. Venue: Department of Philosophy, Tunghai University, Taichung.
3. Organizer: Department of Philosophy, Tunghai University.
